

One Hundred Third Congress
of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-four

An Act

For the relief of James B. Stanley.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS.

(a) PAYMENT.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $400,577 to James B. Stanley.

(b) BASIS.—The payment required by subsection (a) shall be to compensate James B. Stanley for the physical, psychological, and economic injuries sustained by him as a result of the administration to him, without his knowledge, of lysergic acid diethylamide by United States Army personnel in 1958.

SEC. 2. SATISFACTION OF CLAIMS.

The payment made pursuant to section 1(a) shall be in full satisfaction of all claims James B. Stanley may have against the United States for—

(1) the injuries received by him as described in section 1; and

(2) for any injuries received by him subsequent to his discharge from the United States Army that are the result of the injuries described in section 1.

SEC. 3. INELIGIBILITY FOR ADDITIONAL BENEFITS.

James B. Stanley shall not be eligible for any compensation or benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Department of Defense for any injury received by him as described in section 1.

SEC. 4. LIMITATION OF ATTORNEYS' OR AGENTS' FEES.

It shall be unlawful for an amount of more than 10 per centum of the amount paid pursuant to section 1 to be paid to or received by any attorney or agent of James B. Stanley for any service rendered in connection with the payment made by this Act. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of an infraction and shall be subject to a fine in the amount provided in title 18, United States Code.

H. R. 808—2

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.
